Dear Sir

REMINDER 2ND INSTALLMENT

On 6th March 2007, I sent notices to your client Mr. Burzin M. Pajnigara and Mr. Dhani Bux Jatoi. When I received your 'notice reply thereof', it was indeed a windfall, bonanza, godsend, whichever way you see it. It was my good fortune as your letter gave me the opportunity to tell my side of the story. Anyway, I apologize in advance for writing to you repeatedly and for causing any inconvenience. I assume that Mr. Burzin and others are still your client (s) and as such this reminder, which you may please forward or convey to your client (s). If you do not wish me to write to you, please inform in writing and I will write to you no more.

In my previous letter dated 11th April 2007, I had written:

"Further to my reply to your letter dated 27 March 2007, I would like to add the following:

The next payment date for 2nd Installment of Rs. 500,000/- is due on the 8th May 2007. Considering that I have graciously allowed an extension period of 30 days, the payment should reach me before 7th June 2007. I would like to take this opportunity to request you to advise your client to ensure that all installments are made before the due date".

As the cheques issued by your client (s) are Hyderabad based, it takes around 6-7 days for OBC clearance as my bank account is in Karachi. Mr. Dhani Bux had promised twice this month that the 2nd installment of Rs. 5 lacs would be paid before the 25th of this month. As usual, he is 3 days late and does not pick up his phone. These events in which your client (s) repeated failure to pay on time, even with 30 days extension, gives 100% credibility to my side of the story and proves my righteousness beyond any doubt. On the contrary, it does not bear well on your clients as they and their elders gave their word of honour that all payments would be made on time (Hyderabad Gymkhana Meeting).

Please instruct your client (s) to stick to his / their commitments and arrange the payment within the next 3-4 days.

Thanking you
Yours sincerely

Khalid A. Memon
